

CHRISTIAN FEX - SUMMARY

I was born in 1957 in Lund, a small university town in southernmost Sweden.

I finished school after twelve years, with good results and no ambition to further my education. During my school years I also learned how to play the viola, and spent a lot of time playing in the town's amateur orchestras.

I then worked in a butcher shop, at a restaurant, at a hospital for mentally retarded persons, and in a wine-and-liquor shop.

In 1977 I started as a student and actor at the Studioteatern, an amateur theatre in the nearby town of Malmö, and in 1978 I was accepted as a student at Teaterhögskolan in Malmö, one of Sweden's three schools for professional actors.

In 1981 I graduated and I have since then worked as a freelance actor all over Sweden and the fenno-swedish parts of Finland.

I have participated in approximately 55 major stage and TV productions, in different genres such as rock musicals, classics (Shakespeare, Molière, Kleist, Chekov etc), contemporary drama, musical, musical comedy and so on.

Other than that, I have appeared in numerous poetry recitals, happenings, burlesques, and other odd numbers.

I have worked with fringe groups as well as with permanently subsidized companies.

On occasion I teach text analysis at the Teaterhögskolan in Malmö.

I have worked as a combined actor-musician, and also written the score to "The White Steamer" by Gengis Ajmatov at the Vasa Svenska Teater in Finland in 1982, and to "The Comedy of Errors" by Shakespeare at the Malmö Dramatiska Teater in 1995.

I dare to say that my English is tolerable, my Danish plausible, and I cheat with sporadic success in French and German.

I have appeared in a dozen TV productions, on national Swedish, national Finlantic, and national Danish television.

Since 2006 I am self employed and fokus on the kind of work you can exercise behind a microfon – narration,dubbing,reading,etc.I got my own recording facility,should it be needed.

I am 181 centimetres tall and mostly weigh around 80 kilos.

You can reach me by the address, fax and telephone numbers noted on this page.

Glad you were here.

Christian